Hello Mr. Englander,

Consistent with what AUSA Tanya Hajjar previously advised, EDNY is not seeking the forfeiture of these funds in the amount of $50,000 referred to below, and these funds were not included in the forfeiture orders in our case.

Thank you.

Subject: [EXTERNAL] DNJ NXIVM matter

Ms. Payne,

With apologies for emailing again, I've been attempting to follow up with you about the below for several months. For reasons that I am sure you understand, my client is seeking finality with respect to the $50,000 in NXIVM funds that we have previously discussed, related to satisfaction of its judgment against NXIVM in the DNJ matter and the potential for forfeiture. Could you please let me know when you have a minute or two reconnect? Happy to try you by phone if easier. If so, let me know how best to reach you.

Best regards,

Andrew

Hi Andrew,

Sorry for the delay in getting back to you. My impression is that the funds are not subject to criminal forfeiture, but I've copied Tanisha Payne, the AUSA handling forfeiture in this case, who can follow up.

Thanks,
Tanya

Tanya:

Thanks again for your time this morning. As discussed, attached is a copy of the declaration by NXIVM's former local counsel re: the $50,000 in question. The discussion of the funds is brief and begins at paragraph 21.

Best,

Andrew
